
Explore Beautiful Sanibel Island

Who hasn't dreamed of running away to a tropical island? Endless white beaches, swaying palms, waves lapping at the shore and unforgettable sunsets. The island of Sanibel just might be your dream come true.

When you explore Sanibel Island, you'll find more than white sand beaches, coconut palms, crystal waters and colorful seashells lining the shore. Sanibel Island also boasts the amenities that modern travelers want and need, including excellent accommodations, restaurants, theatre, water sports and shopping. The renowned J.N. "Ding Darling" National Wildlife Refuge and Bird Sanctuary should not be missed. The opportunity to explore Sanibel Island is ideal for families and romantics alike. The balance of fabulous amenities and relatively slow-paced lifestyle makes Sanibel Island a safe place to play for both children and adults.

Sanibel Island is a barrier island in Lee County, located along the southwest coast of Florida. Voted one of the "Best North American Islands" by the Conde Nast in 2005, Sanibel Island is revered for its pristine beaches, abundant seashells and vast array of natural wildlife.

On Sanibel Island there are no high-rises, stoplights, or traffic jams. The island of Sanibel falls under perfect darkness at night, creating the ideal atmosphere for stargazing lovers and wonderstruck families. Wildlife flourishes in this natural habitat, so don't be surprised if you find the local traffic stopped to respectfully wait as a tortoise meanders across the lane. Another equally spectacular sight to behold is the nightly showcase as the sun sets across the sea.

For those who enjoy a little culture with their tropical adventure, Sanibel Island certainly fits the bill. It's a little piece of creative heaven, with renowned theatrical performances, arts classes, concerts, music festivals, craft fairs and art exhibits. These activities, plus the incredible dining and shopping, provide something for every traveler who journeys to Sanibel Island.

You're sure to feel energized as you explore Sanibel Island, and there is no shortage of fun ways to put that extra energy to good use. Visitors and locals enjoy golf, tennis, volleyball and an abundance of water activities including fishing, sailing, paddling, parasailing and boating. Regardless of what you call "fun", Sanibel Island has something for you.

If you need to pick up a few necessities or souvenirs, you'll find what you need with many shops and services nearby. Groceries, liquor stores, gas stations, beach supplies and bike and car rental outlets are close at hand. There are fabulous restaurants, soothing spas and even chiropractors and medical clinics to meet your every need.

If you'd like to explore Sanibel Island, you'll find it just 45 minutes away from the Southwest Florida International Airport in Fort Myers. If flying into Tampa or Fort Lauderdale, you'll reach Sanibel Island by car in just a few hours.

With so much going for it, who can wonder why people flock from around the world to explore Sanibel Island? The perfect combination of natural beauty and modern lifestyle has earned Sanibel Island a spot among North America's ten best islands.
