

---

All-inclusive Family Resort

As all parents know, the best family vacation is one where there are no hassles, no bored kids and no added expenses. Too good to be true? Not if you book your next family getaway at one of the all-inclusive family resorts.

Pleasing every member of the family takes the right combination of luxury, adventure, ultimate fun and pay-one-price convenience. There are a select few family resorts that deliver all this and more. Best of all, these resorts are easily accessible online, so you can skip the travel agent and plan your entire vacation on the Internet.

If you want to find the best all-inclusive family resort, consider the wonders of these premiere destinations:

Franklin D. Resort in Jamaica

What could make your perfect all-inclusive family resort vacation even better? How about a "vacation nanny" to accompany your children during your stay? At the Franklin D. Resort, that's just what you'll get. By offering this worry-free service, critics and guests alike rate the Franklin D. Resort as one of the world's finest all-inclusive family destinations. There is also biking, scuba diving, water slides, and an incredible walk up a waterfall to satisfy the thrill-seekers in your family. Kids can choose from their own menus at the resort restaurant, and the huge suites and guest rooms are perfect for big families.

Beaches Negril in Jamaica

Another fantastic all-inclusive family resort is Beaches Negril. Located on Jamaica's famous seven-mile Negril beach, this resort is actually a part of the Sandals group. Your family will enjoy the finest services, accommodations and amenities. While you relax on the beach, your kids will be kept happy and busy with a full slate of specialized programs from infant care to teen activities, as well as the Xbox Game Oasis, ice cream bar and the Pirates Island waterpark. Parents get pampered at Beaches Negril as well, with European spa treatments, a beach bistro, swim-up bars and a choice of restaurants and nightclubs. There are sports and activities for the whole family to enjoy together, including snorkeling boat trips to a coral reef, mini-golf, hydro bikes, beach volleyball and so much more.

Breezes, Curacao

One of the newer all-inclusive family resorts, Breezes Curacao is the first of its kind on this fascinating Caribbean island. Breezes Curacao provides families with daily scuba diving, snorkeling, windsurfing and other water-related sports. Your all-inclusive family vacation includes dining at Japanese, Italian and other fine restaurants. Children receive star treatment with club activities, theme dinners, rock climbing and super-fun trapezes.

All fun, all relaxation, all the time. That's what your family will experience with an all-inclusive family resort vacation.